

Among several tourism possibilities in Chitwan water way travel is emerging as another huge possible sector to work on. From holy pilgrimage Devghat to Golaghat, Triveni Dham and hence Valmiki Ashram can be the possible route of travel that can lure a number of tourists. There is no doubt that this water way can be proven a very effective way to promote religious tourism, and a way to bring internal as well as external tourists to Chitwan. While on this water way different species of birds, water animals, and the surrounding area of river enveloped in beautiful and relaxing environment can be observed. The amazing sunset seen from Golaghat is not to forgotten as well.